

Big Stunts. Bigger Laughs!

The amazing meets the absurd.

Sam loves comedy so much he once helped a chicken cross the road. He's built a life out of bringing audiences together, having fun with them and making people smile wherever he goes. He fell in love with performing years ago after already becoming one of the top jugglers in the world. This appreciation for skill, with years of stand-up and comedy experience have blended together to become a show that's unique, incredibly impressive and most of all engaging.

A unique experience.

Add a secret ingredient to your next event; excitement. Sam brings award winning juggling and comedy skills with him wherever he goes. Sam will make sure his gift for entertainment can be enjoyed by all, with custom material written for each event to make sure you get something fun and original.

See what clients have to say!

"Sam's shows provide the perfect combination of stand-up comedy, world-class juggling skills and a wry sense of humor that provides exceptional fun for everyone." - Elizabeth Balazs, VGA Group

"As a producer it is always a treat to work with Sam, he combines a passion for what he does, with hard work, professional curiosity and ethic that makes him a pleasure to work with." - Andy Green, Downtown Bentonville, Inc.

